
Isabelle Johansen

10. June 2020

LOYALTY

Isabelle stays on average 2 years in her jobs. She has worked as a freelancer for many years and has also a hiatus where she traveled and worked on the road.

REMOTE FIT

Isabelle has worked remotely for 5 years. She has been around the world and knows how to work on the road. She is now working from her home office in Brighton, UK.

FLEXIBILITY

She has a bachelor's and a master's degree in tourism management. She is also a very skilled and professional photographer. She is also a founder of a hostel and an events coordinator. She is also a yoga teacher and a climbing instructor. With that background, she has the ability to fit into many roles.

GROWTH MINDSET

Isabelle has been studying and learning throughout her professional life. She loves to gain new skills either that being yoga, marketing, environment, tourism, or photography.

CV/ONLINE PROFILES

His LinkedIn is good and gives a good impression of her varied background and experience. Her CV has a great design and is professionally made.

VOLUNTEERING

Isabelle has not indicated any volunteer work.

OUR FEEDBACK

With her background as a photographer and her education and experience in travel and tourism, she brings a valuable perspective to her marketing.

Any companies that are in the tourism industry will benefit from having Isabelle on the team.

She is a great communicator and has a professional and engaging personality. The fact that she is a yoga teacher and a climbing instructor means she has some great mental stability.

Report by Paul Arnesen