15. June 2020

LOYALTY

Zeynab is still young and has very recently graduated from university. She has been working freelance for the last 2 years.

REMOTE FIT

As an urban designer, Zeynab can easily work on projects from anywhere. She has a great setup at her home, she speaks fluent English and is a professional communicator.

FLEXIBILITY

Zeynab is a professional, but a young architect. She has not been tested in many roles yet.

GROWTH MINDSET

She comes very recently out of university so she is fresh with ideas and concepts to use. She has great understanding of many of the most common architecture software, especially Revit.

CV/ONLINE PROFILES

Her LinkedIn profile is good with details about her work experience and education so far. Her CV gives a better understanding of her background and skills.

VOLUNTEERING

Zeynab has not indicated any volunteer experiences.

OUR FEEDBACK

Zaynab is an ambitious urban designer and architect who is looking for opportunities where she can be creative. She likes to think outside of the box and has a passion for sustainable, functional, and beautiful design.

IF you are working on any bigger projects and need an inspiring and talented designer in your team then Zeynab is the perfect candidate for.
