

Knox Theological Seminary
5555 N Federal Hwy, Fort Lauderdale, FL 33308
knoxseminary.edu

The Esther Scholarship (2023-24) FACT SHEET

* * *

Knox is delighted to announce the creation of the Esther Scholarship. This fund, established by the generous support of our donors, is the first scholarship at Knox exclusively for female students. The Esther Scholarship will provide up to $5,000 for each recipient and is available for women pursuing a Master's or Doctoral degree at Knox Theological Seminary.

This scholarship fund is provided to encourage and support women with a ministry calling, a desire for seminary education, and a commitment to serving Christ's kingdom through academic excellence and ministry effectiveness.

Applications for the Esther Scholarship will be considered in light of the student's academic record, ministry engagement, and financial need. Priority is given to female students residing outside the South Florida area and intend to study remotely.

To be considered, completed applications are due no later than August 15, 2023.

How to apply:

1. Complete and submit the regular new student Knox application at knoxseminary.edu and pay the required application fee.
2. Complete and submit the Scholarship Application & Student Financial Statement (obtained by contacting admissions@knoxseminary.edu).
3. Submit with the application a 750-word essay describing the applicant's current ministry involvement and how their chosen degree program will further benefit their ministry.

* * *

For questions and completed applications, contact the Knox Seminary admissions office at 954-771-0376 or admissions@knoxseminary.edu

Terms and conditions: Recipients must be a new student applicant in a Master's or Doctoral program, not already enrolled in a program at Knox, and meets degree program eligibility requirements for acceptance. Scholarship may not be combined with any other scholarships or offers.