

Programme

Welcome to the New Food Invest Programme! After having completed the inaugural New Food Invest (NFI) event in 2021 and the New Food Invest EMEA focusing on Europe, Middle East and Africa successfully, we welcome you to join the dedicated New Food Invest event focusing on the Asian-Pacific market. This unique online investment conference focuses exclusively on bringing international alternative-protein startups together with investors and venture capitalists plus institutional investors. You will benefit from gaining first-hand access to knowledge and insights from key financial stakeholders and connect with investors and startups. Check back in regularly as more speakers, sponsors and sessions are announced. We look forward to seeing you online!
