

Press release 8.1.2019 ROBERT NOMINATIONS 2019

CELEBRATING A THRILLING YEAR IN DANISH FILM AND TV!

The Danish Film Academy has announced the nominations for this year's ROBERT awards. The country's most coveted award will celebrate the diverse and consistently high quality of Danish film and tv output, and see newcomers go head to head with veterans in the major categories. The Academy presents the 35th ROBERT awards on Sunday February 3rd, 2019 with entertainer Jan Gintberg as show host.

A total of 27 feature films were in the running for the many ROBERT statuettes. A testimony of a strong film-year, but this year the tv-categories saw even fiercer competition as both 'best tv-series' and 'best short tv-series' had twice as many potential nominees.

Three very different veterans of Danish cinema scooped the most nominations, including Best Film and Best Director, led by Bille August's 'A Fortunate Man' on top with 16, Lars von Trier's 'The House That Jack Built' with 12 and Christoffer Boe's 'The Purity of Vengeance' with 11 alongside newcomers Niclas Bendixen's 'Ditte & Louise' with 11 and Gustav Möller's 'The Guilty' with 9 nominations. Another first effort, 'Holiday', secured Isabella Eklöf a nomination as Best Director as well as one for Best Screenplay in collaboration with Johanne Algren, which gives the film a total of 7 nominations.

The booming Danish tv-production output is also honoured at the ROBERT awards and the competition is close this year with DR Drama's 'Liberty' and 'Ride Upon the Storm II' facing off with Miso Film's 'Warrior' and 'The Rain' as well as Nimbus Film & Filmlance's 'The Bridge III'.

The Best Documentary will be found among Elvira Lind's 'Bobbi Jene', Simon Lereng Wilmont's 'Distant Barking of Dogs', Cille Hannibal's 'The Night We Fell', Malene Choi Jensen's 'The Return' and Emil Næsby Hansen's 'The Two Of Us'.

The winner of the Best Children & Youth Film category will be either 'Checkered Ninja', 'Vitello', 'Land of Glass', 'Wildwitch' or the youth drama 'Sticks & Stones'.

All nominations were decided by the academy members based on their profession, and it is now up to the more than 2500 members of The Danish Film Academy to vote for the winners in all categories. See the full list of nominations below.

The ROBERT AWARDS will be held on Sunday February 3rd, 2019 from 5:30pm at the Tivoli Hotel & Congress Center.
