

The winners of the Danish Film Academy's 2020 ROBERT awards

At the 36th ROBERT awards on Sunday night in Copenhagen 'Queen of Hearts' reigned almost supreme taking 9 awards including Best Film, Best Director and Best Original Screenplay as well as Best Actress (Trine Dyrholm) and Best Supporting Actor (Magnus Krepper) along with 5 in the technical categories. It was the 10th time the Academy crowned Trine Dyrholm with a Robert, but the first time May el-Toukhy won Best Director making her the first woman to win in this category since it was introduced in 2001.

There was a little room for other films to shine, but 'Daniel' managed and secured awards for Esben Smed as Best Actor and Sofie Torp as Best Supporting Actress as well as the Best Adapted Screenplay for Anders Thomas Jensen. It also scooped the Blockbuster Audience Award. Another popular win was Feras Fayyad's 'The Cave' as Best Documentary as well as comedy veterans Wikke & Rasmussen landing Best Children and Youth Film for 'Gooseboy'.

This year the tv-categories saw fiercer competition than ever as the number of local series productions has increased. But the Academy singled out Jeppe Gjervig Gram's 'Follow the Money III' as Best Tv-Series and it also secured a Best Actress - Tv-series award for Maria Rich and Best Supporting Actor - Tv-series for Jacob Hauberg Lohmann. The new audience award for Tv-series went to 'Seaside Hotel 6'.

Bong Joon Ho's 'Parasite' was named Best Non-English Language Film and 'Joker' Best English Language Film. For the full list of awards see below. All winners were decided upon by the 2000 Academy members.
