

Riserva Vite Colte Barbaresco Piemonte, Italia

Barbaresco is one of the great wines of the Piemonte region in Northwestern Italy. Along with Barolo, it is one of the best expressions of Nebbiolo grape. The Barbaresco has unique ruby red color with garnet shades, an intense and remarkably complex bouquet with nuances of red and black fruits, with notes of black pepper and clove. To the palate, it is dry and warm with an impressive body, texture and a very long finish.

The Prisoner Meritage Napa Valley, California

The Prisoner was inspired by the “mixed blacks” first made by the Italian immigrants who originally settled in Napa Valley. The Prisoner is now the most recognized Napa Valley red blend, leading the resurgence of interesting blends by incorporating Zinfandel with the unlikely mix of Cabernet Sauvignon, Petite Sirah, Syrah, and Charbono. It features enticing aromas of Bing cherry, dark chocolate, clove, and roasted fig. Persistent flavors of ripe raspberry, boysenberry, pomegranate, and vanilla linger harmoniously, for a smooth and luscious finish.

Round Pond ‘Kith & Kin’ Cabernet Sauvignon Napa Valley, California

Vibrant aromatics of ripe cherry, black plum, cedar, and fine leather all leap from the glass. The supple and seductive entry is ripe with blackberry jam and soft mocha tones, leading this balanced wine through the mid-palate with notes of vanilla, violet florals, and a touch of white pepper. The finish is smooth with approachable velvety tannins that softly linger.

Castello Banfi Brunello di Montalcino Toscana, Italia

An elegant and powerful Brunello. Deep red with garnet nuances, the nose reveals its complexity with aromas of plum, ripe cherry and small red fruits that perfectly combine with those of licorice and tobacco. In the mouth, it is full-bodied, with pleasant and soft tannins. Intense finish and great persistence.

Tenute Carretta Barolo Cannubi Piemonte, Italia

Of Barolo, Cannubi is the oldest and most prestigious cru. Thanks to the perfect vine’s exposure to the sun, to the particular microclimate and unique soil composition, it is a wine of great character, elegance and longevity. This full-bodied Barolo with a long finish has intense aromas of violet, rose, plum and cherry with spicy notes of licorice, herbs and oak.
