

- The Definition of _____ (Romans 3:9-18)
 - _____ - None are without sin.
 - _____ - No one seeks after God.
 - _____ - No one is good in thoughts, words or actions.
 - Robert Letham writes, “...depravity denotes that sin affects every facet of our nature. It does not mean that sinners are as bad as they possibly can be or that any one person is as bad as he possibly can be. Nor does it mean that fallen humans lack a conscience or that the world since the fall is entirely miserable and incapable of making any progress or appreciating the beauty evident all around. It means that no part of the personality is uncorrupted: the mind, the emotions, and so on.

- The Biblical _____ about Depravity.
 - We are _____ sinners (Psalm 51:5; Eph. 2:2-3; Rom. 5:12-21)
 - All are _____ even as children (Prov. 22:15; Gen. 8:21)
 - _____ is described as being unrighteous (Eph. 2:1-3; Psalm 14:2-3; Ecc. 9:3)

- _____ Depravity through Spiritual Growth (I Peter 2:1-3)
 - Be _____ of your salvation (I Peter 1:18-25)
