fourteen (14) days prior to the meeting date. Meetings of the Board may be held by the Internet or other electronic communications technology, provided that the selected systems allow participants to communicate substantially concurrently with one another, vote on matters submitted to the Council, pose questions and make comments. Any Board member(s) participating in a meeting through such technology shall be considered to be present in person at the meeting.

6) Meeting Conduct and Quorum: Meetings of the Board shall be conducted according to the provisions of Robert’s Rules of Order, except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws. A majority of the members of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the purposes of conducting business.

7) Action Without a Meeting: Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board may be taken without a meeting if all of the members of the Board entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter consent in writing (or by email) to such action.

8) Director Nominations: Not less than ninety (90) days prior to the Association’s annual meeting, the Chairman shall appoint a Nominating Committee consisting of at least three (3) Contractor Members. Not less than sixty (60) days prior to the annual meeting, the staff will mail to the membership a call for nominations for the Board elections. The Nominating Committee then shall report to the Board a complete slate of Board nominations. The staff shall then distribute the slate of nominees for election and a ballot to the main contact from each member company not less than thirty (30) days prior to the annual meeting. Each nominee shall be given the opportunity to contact the membership and offer their views as to why they would like to sit on the board. Ballots will be returned to the Association office for tabulation prior to the annual conference. Election results will be announced during the annual conference.

9) Term of Office: Directors serve a three (3) year term and may not be elected to more than three (3) consecutive full terms. Directors may be re-elected to the Board after taking one (1) year off from Board service. The terms of office of Directors shall be staggered, whereby no more than one-third (1/3) of the Directors shall be elected each year.

10) Resignation: Except as otherwise required by law, a Director may resign from the Board at any time by giving notice in writing to the Board. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, no acceptance of such resignation shall be necessary to make it effective.

11) Vacancies: In the event that a Director is unable, for any reason, to complete his or her elected term of office, the vacancy may be filled upon nomination by the Chairman and approved by a majority of the Directors remaining in office even if they constitute less than a quorum.
12) Suspension or Expulsion: Subject to the restrictions in the District of Columbia Nonprofit Corporation Act, the Board shall have the authority to make recommendations for the suspension or removal of Board members for cause. Such recommendation must be made by a majority vote of quorum.

13) Meeting Attendance: Any Director who fail to attend three (3) or more consecutive Board Meetings shall be deemed to have resigned their position on the Board without further resolution from the remaining Directors. The Board, by a vote of a majority of the remaining Directors, may waive the removal based on the Director’s showing of good cause for their failure to attend Board meetings.

14) Committee Participation: Directors may serve on one (1) committee while serving on the Board. If at the time of election, a Director is serving on multiple committees they must submit their resignation to all but one (1) committee.

ARTICLE V — COMMITTEES

1) NRC Safety Committee: The Chairman of the NRC Safety Committee will change every two (2) years, following the same pattern as the Chairman of the NRC Board of Directors.

   The NRC Safety Committee Chairman will be appointed by the NRC Board Chairman, who may consider the wishes of the Safety Committee members.

   The Safety Manager (or equivalent) of the company which employs the NRC Board Chairman is encouraged to take an active role on the Safety Committee and assist in keeping an active line of communication open between the NRC Board and the Safety Committee.

   At all times, at least one (1) member of the Board should be an active member of the NRC Safety Committee. In addition, a Safety Committee member who is also a Board member should be assigned to the role of Board/Safety Committee Liaison, with responsibility for keeping an active line of communication open between the Board and the Safety Committee.
