

TOURIST INFORMATION

For information on activities, tours, services and supports in the Dublin Mountains, visit the Tourist Office online at www.dlrtourism.ie or in person in Dún Laoghaire town. +353 (0) 1 280 6964.

www.dlrtourism.ie

GREAT VIEWING POINTS

-  Carrickgollogan and The Ballycorus Lead Mines
-  Ticknock
-  The Blue Light Pub
-  Glencullen
-  Killiney Hill
-  Tibbradden Wood
-  Barnaslingan & The Scalp

IT'S WELL WORTH THE CLIMB

From the mountains to the sea, Dublin is blessed with a stunning natural landscape – and you will experience Ireland's capital at its best when you spend a day getting close to nature in the Dublin Mountains.

Just 10km from the city centre, there's great outdoors to be discovered that is the perfect antidote to the hustle and bustle of city life.

Go hiking or horse-riding, mountain biking or zip lining, golfing or paintballing. Go wildlife watching, explore ancient sites and monuments, or just savour the spectacular views. The trails and forests of the Dublin Mountains have something for everyone.

Walk by yourself or opt for a guided tour. Many of the starting points are accessible by public transport, and have free car parking, while tour and activity operators can arrange collections from the city centre. Contact them to find out more.

Action-packed or leisurely-paced, the Dublin Mountains do both – and everything in between. All you have to do is choose! One thing for certain, you'll receive a warm welcome in every village and on every trail, and leave with great memories that last a lifetime.

It all starts just 30 minutes from Dublin city centre. So, go on and get outdoors in the Dublin Mountains. It's Well Worth the Climb!

WALKS

-  Dublin Mountains Way
-  Shankill to Scalp Loop
-  Fairy Castle Loop
-  Hellfire Club
-  Tibbradden Mountain Trail
-  Killiney Hill
-  The Wicklow Way

 PARKING

 VIEWING POINTS

VIEW
INTERACTIVE
MAP

