What if you could host a prophecy conference that was easy to plan, easy to set-up, low-cost, and easy to fit into your calendar? The Prophecy Pros™ can help you reach those goals by offering a one-day conference designed to bring the life-changing truths of Bible prophecy to your church!

Here's how it works!

Friday: Jeff Kinley and Todd Hampson fly in to your town.

Saturday: They deliver 4 messages along with a Q&A session Saturday afternoon. Fly out Saturday evening (or Sunday morning).

The entire event has a pop-up theme and feel. Attendees will enjoy lunch from local food trucks in your area, so you don't have to provide food for the event.

Host Church Responsibilities: Airfare/Hotel, 1-Day Honorarium
(We recommend charging for the event, or taking an offering to help cover costs).

Call 706-426-0951 or email Todd@Timbuktoons.com for details!

Two experts. One topic. No confusion.

Four messages. One day. No hassle.
