

NOTICE REGARDING TRANSFER ON DEATH REGISTRATION

Your Shares or Units of: (Note: A separate form is required to be completed for each program you elect.)

Name of Investment Program

may be registered in beneficiary form by directing the Company to include in the registration a Transfer on Death “TOD” directive to transfer the Shares/Units upon your death to the designated TOD beneficiary. An example of this registration would be “John Doe TOD Jane Smith.” This agreement is between you and the Company. You should discuss the making of a TOD directive with your attorney to ensure that it is consistent with your estate and tax planning.

If you chose to reinvest your Shares or Units, the TOD directive with respect to your Shares/Units will also apply to Shares/Units subsequently acquired by you pursuant to the Dividend/Distribution Reinvestment Plan. The Company may, but shall not be required to, include your TOD directive on your taxpayer information forms and other correspondence as part of the registration in which your Shares/Units are held. You may name a Contingent Beneficiary to whom your Shares/Units will be transferred if, and only if, all of your Primary Beneficiary(ies) predecease(s) you. If all named beneficiaries predecease you, your Shares/Units will be transferred to your estate.

The Company reserves the right to allow the following rules to apply to a TOD registration:

1. A TOD may only be held on an Individual or Joint Tenants with Right of Survivorship (“JTWROS”) registration (not on an IRA, estate, trust, etc.).
2. The TOD beneficiary must be an individual or entity and cannot be one of the persons in the JTWROS registration.
3. The TOD beneficiary must be named on this form; “spouse” or “children” is not an acceptable designation.
4. A TOD registration will not be accepted from residents of Louisiana.

Upon your death, your Shares/Units and any unpaid distributions with respect to your Shares/Units will be transferred to your designated beneficiary(ies) who survive(s) you, with the properly executed transfer paperwork. You agree that the Company may rely on a sworn request submitted by you to execute your TOD directive (submitted by your named beneficiary or by your personal representative) that lists your surviving beneficiary(ies). Your TOD directive is revocable prior to your death by the sale of your Shares/Units, by assigning your Shares/Units to another person or entity or by requesting registration without a TOD directive or requesting registration with a new TOD directive. Your TOD directive may not be revoked by a provision in your will. If the TOD directive is held in a JTWROS registration, the surviving joint owner may, acting alone, revoke the TOD directive following the death of the other joint owner.

IMPORTANT NOTICE: The Company will only honor a TOD directive that has been recorded on the Company’s registration record by the Company. Also, the Company will not recognize a revocation or change in a TOD directive made in your will or other instrument. Changes and revocations of a TOD directive will only be accepted when in proper form. Proper form requires each of the following:

1. Endorsement by the Owner(s) with acceptable signature guarantee(s).
2. Instruction indicating either a new form of registration, removal of the current TOD beneficiary and/or designating a new TOD beneficiary.
3. Actual receipt by the Company prior to your death.

You should periodically review and consider any outstanding TOD directive to make certain the TOD directive conforms to your current intentions with respect to the disposition of the Shares/Units at your death.
