UNIFYING, LEARNING, SERVING

*Preaching evaluation forms are provided as tools for discussion and assessment for students and supervisors.

At least 2 congregation members should complete individual evaluations per sermon.

This form should be uploaded to the Canvas Course site, by the student, in the assignments tab.

Ministerial Fieldwork Preaching Evaluation

(First Two Semesters' Student Congregational Fieldwork)

Student _____ Supervisor _____

Date of Sermon _____ Congregation/Agency _____

The purpose of this sheet is to guide you, a regular worshiper, in making a helpful analysis of your Ministerial Fieldwork student's preaching. Seminary preaching provides one kind of practice that is evaluated by classmates and instructors, but the Ministerial Fieldwork congregation offers a real time, local context for preaching where regular worshipers can respond to the student's homiletical work. At least 2 evaluations per sermon is helpful.

I. Content What was the sermon about ?

A. Did the student connect the theme to the Biblical text?

B. Relevance to your life?

C. Did you lose track? Why?

D. Was the sermon timely?

II. Delivery

A. Could you hear the student comfortably?

B. Did the sermon keep your interest?
