

Falcons Landing, a Life Plan Community in Potomac Falls Virginia is proud to announce that The Johnson Center Nursing Center at Falcons Landing, has been named again as a Best Nursing Home in the 2021-2022 U.S. News World Report. They were also given the distinction of a High Performing rating in both Short-Term Rehabilitation and Long-Term Care. Only 1,063 nursing homes out of 13,175 received a High-Performing rating for both Long-Term Care and Short-Term Care.

Per U.S. News & World Report, the methodology this year included an emphasis on nursing homes meeting certain standards of patient safety, which could limit the ability to achieve a 'High-Performing rating. "These standards included a minimum threshold for the staff COVID-19 vaccination rate, overuse of antipsychotic drugs and frequent visits to the emergency department, among other criteria."

The Johnson Center at Falcons Landing completed the annual State Survey this past October and were found to be deficiency free. Gary Handley, CEO/President of Falcons Landing says, "This is an achievement that is rarely seen in skilled nursing, and I am extremely proud to be a part of such a dedicated and engaged group of professionals and such a worthy organization that makes a positive difference in the lives of so many daily. Being recognized, once again as a High-Performing Best Nursing Home by U.S. News & World Report during a pandemic is an honor and validation of the hard work the staff at The Johnson Center does each day.”

The Johnson Center at Falcons Landing is one of 286 nursing homes in Virginia. Of these, 34 received an overall rating of 5 out of 5.
