

Experience you can trust

established in 1921, our 96 year history has been built around composites.

Multiple cnc machines including mills, lathes and table saws give us the ability to accurately reach economies of scale for production.

Internal laminating and molding division including tube winding equipment and industrial presses to mold square & rectangular tubing, channels & angles, and industrial bearings.

