CHC50113 - Diploma of Early Childhood Education and Care

Change young lives at the

AIAS School of Early Learning

The AIAS School of Childcare courses have been designed to give early childhood educators a head start in the teaching sector.

Alongside practical teaching skills, students are given robust training into the many facets of early childhood education from planning and implementation to support and management of children's health and well being.

Diploma Of Early Childhood Education and Care

Our Diploma course seamlessly integrates with the Certificate III qualification allowing students to expand on what they have previously learned with submersion into speciality subjects to really encompass the leadership aspects of childcare.

Students continue applying their practical experience via work placement and are able to advance their understanding thoroughly making them either valuable aspirants or considerably better equipped re-entrants into the ubiquitous world of child care and education.

Pathways & Further Study

After completing the Diploma of Early Childhood Education and Care, students may gain employment as a Group Leader, Team Leader, Qualified Child Care Worker, Program Leader, Kindergarten or Preschool Assistant, Primary School Teacher Aide, Service Manager or Centre Director in a child care facility, or may choose to go onto further study such as the Advanced diploma of Children's Services or gain credit towards a university degree such as Bachelor of Education (Early Childhood).
