

HIGHER EDUCATION IN PRISON READING PROJECT

Dr. Bettina L. Love's
*We Want to Do More Than
Survive (2019)*

MONTH	WORK WEEK	TWITTER CHAT	ASSIGNMENT	PAGES
April	April 12	//	Books and project materials shipped to selected programs	No reading assignment
	April 26-30	//	Acquire books and get oriented with program materials and discussion questions	No reading assignment
May	May 3-7	May 4	Read Chapter 1 "We Who Are Dark"	1-15
	May 10-14	May 11	Read Chapter 2 "Educational Survival"	16-41
	May 17-21	May 18	Read Chapter 3 "Mattering"	42-68
	May 24-28	May 25	Read Chapter 4 "Grit, Zest and Racism (The Hunger Games)"	69-87
June	May 31-June 4	June 1	Read Chapter 5 "Abolitionist Teaching, Freedom Dreaming, and Black Joy"	88-123
	June 7-11	June 8	Read Chapter 6 "Theory Over Gimmicks"	124-148
	June 14-18	June 15	Read Chapter 7 "We Gon' Be Alright, But That Ain't Alright"	149-162
	June 21-25	June 22	Catch up if you're behind!

Reminders

The Alliance for Higher Education in Prison uses its Twitter account (@allianceforHEP) to discuss the books in the Higher Education in Prison Reading Project. Use the hashtag #HEPReadingProject and follow along/engage with us each Tuesday at 9 am PT/12 pm ET. You are also welcome to send messages or DMs; remember that you can also write info@higheredinprison.org with "HEP Reading Project" in the subject line. For more suggestions on how to engage via social media, please refer to the project handbook, p.6-7. We look forward to hearing from you!