

Denver International Airport: Brief Overview

The Denver International Airport has One (1) Main Terminal and Three (3) Concourses: A, B, and C.

The Main Terminal houses baggage claim, departure drop-off and arrival pick-up, ticketing, and security.

The Concourses are where flights arrive and depart: all travelers arriving and departing Denver will do so at one of the three Concourses (A, B, C).

Moving between the Terminal and Concourse

The Main Terminal is connected to Concourse A, B and C by the Automatic Guideway Transit System (AGTS) which is a free underground train service that runs between the Terminal and Concourse C, stopping at Concourses A and B in between. A full trip between the Terminal and Concourse C takes about 5 minutes.

Upon landing and de-planing in Denver, look for signs to: Terminal (this is where you will find Baggage Claim and Ground Transportation). Head in the direction of the Terminal. Take the AGTS (Transit System Train) from your Concourse (A, B or C) to the Terminal.

Here are the locations of commonly needed options once you arrive at the Terminal:

Baggage Claim

Level 5 on both the East and West side of the Terminal, depending on your airline.

Ride Services (Lyft or Uber)

Ride-share pickups are on Level 5, Island 5 of the Terminal. If you have requested rides through the Lyft or Uber apps, follow signs for ground transportation, then exit the terminal through Doors 506–510 (West side) and 507–511 (East side) on Level 5 near baggage claim and proceed to Island 5 to meet your driver. Range of cost: $35-$75/depending on time of day.

Taxi

You'll find taxis at Level 5, Island 1, outside of the Terminal through Door 507 (East side) and Door 510 (West side). Flat rates are the same for all companies (the NCHEP Hotel is in Denver Tech Region B: $62.03).

Note: There is not a shuttle between the Marriott Denver Tech Center and the Denver Airport.

Buses and Regional Transportation Train

Denver's public transport system, Regional Transportation District (RTD/Light Rail), also operates four bus routes under the frequent airport express bus service called SkyRide. Board at the DEN Transit Center, Level 1, adjacent to the Westin Denver International Airport Hotel. The Transit Center can be accessed at the South end of the Terminal by exiting through the glass doors and taking the escalator or elevator down to ground level.
