

AVANT-GARDE WEALTH

PRIVACY POLICY

As of August 1st, 2022

Avant-Garde Wealth recognizes that our relationships with current and prospective clients are based on integrity and trust. We work hard to maintain your privacy and to preserve the private nature of our relationship with you. We place the highest value on the information you share with us. Avant-Garde Wealth will not disclose your personal information to anyone unless it is required by law or at your direction. We will not sell your personal information. Avant-Garde Wealth will provide a Privacy Policy to all clients annually.

We want our clients to understand what information we collect, how we use it, and how we protect it responsibly.

Why We Collect Your Information

We gather information about you so that we can:

- Help design and implement the investment and / or planning related services we provide you.
- Comply with the Federal and State laws and regulations that govern us.

What Information We Collect and Maintain

We may collect the following types of “nonpublic personal information” about you:

- Information from our initial meeting or subsequent consultations about your identity, such as your name, address, social security number, date of birth, and financial information.
- Information that we generate to service your financial needs.
- Information that we may receive from third parties with respect to your financial profile.

What Information We Disclose

We are permitted by law to disclose nonpublic information about you to unaffiliated third parties in certain circumstances. For example, for us to provide investment management and / or financial planning services to you, we may disclose your personal information in limited circumstances to various service providers, such as our clearing firm, Charles Schwab Institutional, or independent contractors hired by Avant-Garde Wealth. If a Financial Planner leaves Avant-Garde Wealth to join another firm, he or she may be permitted to retain copies of client information so they can assist with the transfer of client accounts and continue to serve the client at their new firm.

“Opting-Out” of Third Party Disclosures: If you do not want your Financial Planner to retain copies of your client sensitive information when he or she leaves us to join another firm, you may contact us at (270) 883-0155 or contact@a-gwealth.com.

Otherwise, Avant-Garde Wealth will not disclose any personal information about you or your account(s) unless one of the following conditions is met:

- We receive your prior written consent.
- We have documentation that the recipient is your authorized representative.

- We are required by law to disclose information to the recipient arrangements with companies or independent contractors not affiliated with Avant-Garde Wealth will be subject to confidentiality agreements.

How We Protect Your Personal Information

Privacy has always been important to Avant-Garde Wealth. We restrict and limit access to client information only to those who need to carry out their business functions. We educate employees about safeguarding client information and preventing its unauthorized access, disclosure, or use. Employees will be required to acknowledge their acceptance and understanding of the Privacy Policy in writing.

We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to protect your confidential personal information.
