All Volunteers

If you are fun-loving and passionate about enabling everybody to experience God's love, this could be the role for you!

- You can expect to serve for around 20 hours over the Festival One weekend.
- You will be rostered onto shifts of 3-4 hours.
- You must complete a Police Vetting prior to Festival.
- You will be able to buy a Crew Ticket for Festival One.

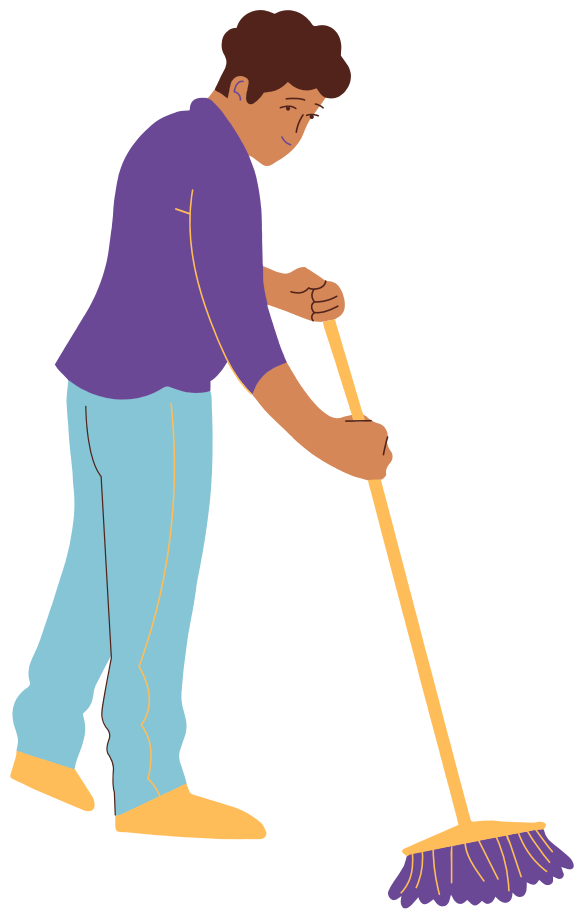

Roles & Responsibilities

General Crew

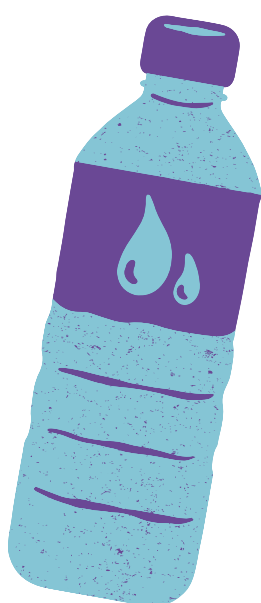

As the main face of The Soul Lounge, you will be interacting with festival-goers and Soulmates around our spaces.

You will ensure our marquee is clean and tidy.

You will provide support, companionship and assistance to Soulmates as required.

You will provide refreshments and cooling aids to Soulmates as required

You will assist the Soul Lounge team with preparations and other general tasks.

Roles & Responsibilities

Buddies

These crew members are assigned to Soulmates may require more personal support whilst at Festival One as their 'buddy'.

You will be a main point of contact for this group of Soulmates and will check in with them throughout the weekend.

You will support those who may struggle to communicate.

You will provide company and respite support to Soulmates as appropriate.

Roles & Responsibilities

Kitchen

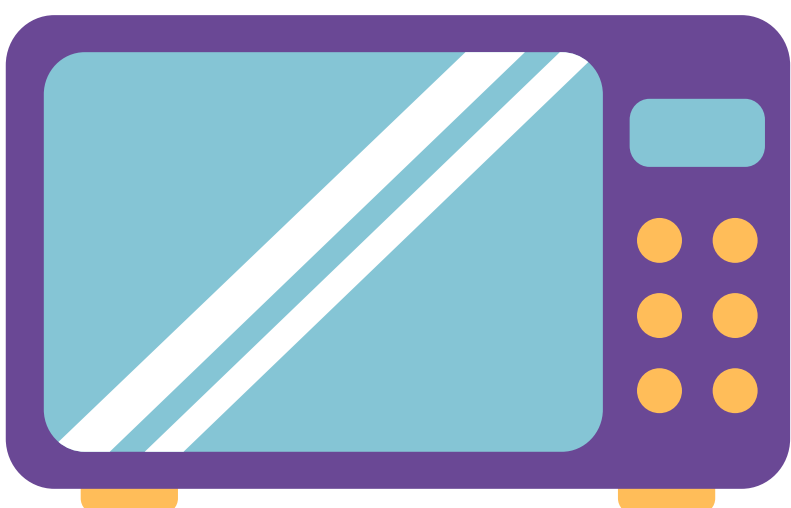

Our kitchen team ensure those who have food as a barrier are able to attend Festival One.

You will assist with the preparation and pack up of Crew and Soulmate meals and snacks.

You will ensure refreshment supplies are kept topped up.

You will ensure the kitchen is clean and tidy.

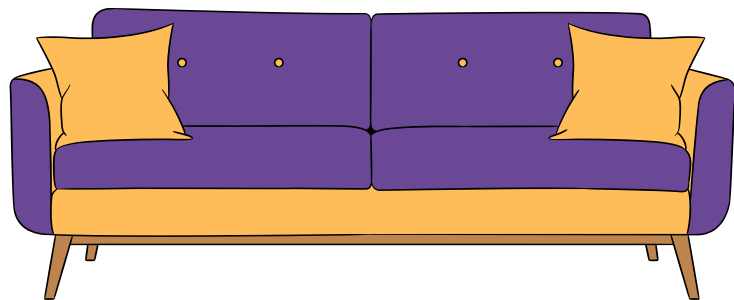

You will ensure only those who require kitchen facilities have access.

Roles & Responsibilities

Set Up and Pack Down

This team of people will assist before and after Festival One with heavy lifting and transportation of all our equipment.

You will assist with creating our spaces and arranging furniture, equipment and facilities. This includes beds, sofas, fridges, tables.

You will assist with putting up tents.

You will also ideally be able to help with packing up again after Festival One.

Supported Volunteers

We are committed to enabling everyone to fully participate in Festival One. This includes volunteers!

If there is a barrier that is stopping you from volunteering at Festival One, please let us know.

Many of our volunteers require additional support to attend Festival.

This means you can serve but with achievable expectations for your situation.

Everyone is welcome!
