

Sunday was founded on the belief that true beauty is about the journey and the act of self-care rather than the concept of perfection. Sunday is about breaking down unrealistic standards of perfection and normalizing the things that make you unique. Beauty is self-love and feeling good about what makes you who you are.

The Chủ Nhật Collection is inspired by the ancient secrets passed down from generation to generation; from Vietnamese mothers to daughters. Chủ Nhật is the Vietnamese word for Sunday and is the literal translation of "main day." The Vietnamese weekdays are numbered; Monday or Thứ hai means second, Tuesday or Thứ ba means third, Wednesday or Thứ tư means fourth, Thursday or Thứ năm means fifth, Friday or Thứ sáu means sixth, and Saturday or Thứ bảy means seventh.

Together, this is the main collection. Made for you from the beauty passed on from generations of beautiful Vietnamese women.
