

Amy Salley – Associate

Ms. Salley focuses her practice on commercial litigation, with an emphasis on business and construction disputes. Ms. Salley also has experience with e-discovery issues, and she assists in developing strategies to increase the efficiency and accuracy of electronic discovery with the goal of reducing litigation costs to corporate clients.

Prior to joining Hudson Parrott Walker, Ms. Salley worked as an associate at a civil practice focusing on property, environmental, regulatory, and permitting issues connected to construction and real estate development. Ms. Salley also served as public defender in the Douglas County Public Defender's Office, representing indigent clients in criminal matters from arrest through trial.

Ms. Salley is a proud "Double Dawg," having earned both her undergraduate degree and her J.D. from the University of Georgia.

Education

- University of Georgia - B.A., cum laude
- University of Georgia - J.D.

Bar and Court

- Georgia State Bar
- United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia

Contact

Email: ASalley@HPWlegal.com
Office: 404-554-8169

Paralegal: Londun E. Isler
Paralegal Email: lisler@hpwlegal.com
Paralegal Office: 404-554-8189

Industry Recognition

