Coordinator's Corner

Happy Fall Leaders, Directors, Teachers and Friends,

CLASS Observations have begun. Please ensure that you are doing informal observations/walk-throughs and providing teachers with feedback. Your assigned Coach has been on site to support teachers; whether Kristin Courtney with VOA or from our Ready Start Network. Soft Performance Profiles have been released. Early Learning Center Professional Development Day was a huge success. Thank you all for prioritizing the forward movement of our network and most importantly, what's best for children!

"Building the system for Equity"

Moving towards a post-pandemic world, early childhood education is still in a fractured state of recovery. Numerous headlines define the inequitable foundation early childhood system is built on that limits educators' capacity to thrive and impact children's lives.

Yet demand for early learning remains steadfast as families get back to routines in communities everywhere. How do policymakers start to level the playing field for early childhood programs with equitable policies while increasing access for families in need of high-quality care?

- Center on what matters most
- Lift up every classroom
- Allow for reflective quality pathways
- Level the financial playing field
- Empower continuous quality improvement (CQI)
