- We believe that Jesus is the Christ, the God-man, fully God and fully man.
- We believe in the Cross of Christ and His blood atonement for the Sins of the world, that whosoever believes in Him by faith shall be saved through God's grace.
- We believe in the bodily resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ from the grave, the first fruits of those to come.
- We believe in the Second Coming of Jesus Christ.
- We believe in the presence and the power of the Holy Spirit. We believe in the Church, Christ's living body. We believe in "believer's baptism" as an act of obedience to Christ and the initiation into the body of Christ.

Grappling with Life

Living on planet earth extracts a heavy toll. It's not just the daily grind of making a living, but it's the ongoing threat of accidents, ill health, interpersonal conflicts and disappointments

It's pretty easy to get down, even for the believer. Yet, Jesus taught us to take His joy into ourselves; He wants His joy to be made full in us (John 15.11). This happens not because we will it, but because we receive what He has already provided.

Indeed, "the joy of the LORD is our strength" (Neh.8.10c). That is, when we consider the work that God has done for us; when we consider His redemptive act in Christ; when we remember His good favor to deliver us and prosper us, then we should receive these blessings, especially His forgiveness, and rejoice.

"Rejoice in the Lord always; again, I will say, rejoice" (Phil.4.4). Why? Because "Every good thing bestowed and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation, or shifting shadow" (James 1.17).

Nehemiah instructed the people Israel to "not mourn or weep," but to have God's joy (Neh.8.9). They were mourning and weeping when they heard Ezra read from the book of the Law. They were devastated to see their fallenness in the light of God's Word. They forgot His many benefits (Ps.103.1-5).

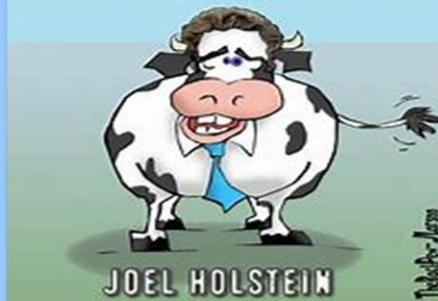

Finally, to experience "the peace that passes understanding" and to be joyful, we must learn to let go and let God.

In Memory of Our Sister Rita

Kelly would like to hold a family only outdoor memorial for Rita on Saturday, September 26th, at Show Low City Park. His family has asked for this because of their virus fear. We remember Rita's 65 birthday party as that time when she said goodbye to us all. .

Stealing Your Vote

Get a copy of Robert Knight's book Liberty on the Brink from Jim Tapscott. This book clearly and factually presents the great threat to our American nation by way of a tampered ballot box.

Transitional Housing

WMCAH Board members met with the state representative grant writer for funding from the new state allotment for homeless housing. The meeting went well, and a dialogue is being established between the state and the city of Show Low. This should lead to a partnership which will generate a grant to our housing project. Pray.

Joint Meeting of Shepherding Groups

This Wednesday, September 23rd, all our Shepherding groups will all meet together at our church at 5:30 pm. These combination meetings give us a chance to strengthen our groups in our common fellowship, pray together, and share in God's word. You're welcome to join us, even if you do not attend a group.

Chapel Additions

Thanks to Pastor Jim and John Greer for installing new video projectors and lighting in our chapel. These additions bring new clarity to our wall images and to the faces of those ministering. Your faithful giving has made this possible.

24/7 Prayer

We've been invited by Cindy Woods to join with other Christians on the mountain to set up a prayer vigil 24/7 through the election in November. She has a signup sheet, and you can contact her at 480-204-2796. This is a personal commitment to pray for our nation and to petition God to heal our land. (2 Chron.7.14).
