The New Year

After our experience in 2020, many are saying "I'm glad that's over with."

It's an expression of both frustration and anxiety which, in a sense, is a pity, since every day of life is a gift. Yet, people generally have trouble seeing the forest for the trees.

We much prefer life to be easy, filled with good things, and to be normal in all ways. When life's not that way, we get testy. Let's pray that we don't carry that attitude into the new year.

Expect the best, live for the best, and be prayed up each day for the surprises. God will carry us through.

We can do this because of the wonderful promises of God that we have in Jesus Christ our Lord. Jesus said, "Truly, truly, I say to you, he who believes in Me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go to the Father. And whatever you ask in My name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son" (John 14.12,13). Remember, "that the Father may be glorified in the Son."

Our lives take good form when we glorify God, when we praise Jesus, and then when we ask, there's a spiritual moment when the blessings come. This new year we must take to heart to "give thanks in all things for this is God's will for us in Jesus" (1 Thess.5.18).

We must "pray without ceasing," and "be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving make our requests known to God" (1 Thess.5.17; Phil.4.6).

Will the new year be better than the last? I don't know, but I do know that by "walking in faith," and "giving God the glory," that my mind and heart will be predisposed to God's goodness no matter what happens.

Happy New Year!
