Lent

It is a word shortened from the old English "lecnten," referencing the "spring season," but more accurately, "the return of light."

After the long, dark winter, we long for "the light," for longer days, and for the return of leaves to the trees, grass to the fields and flowers abundant. This desire was especially felt in Europe, where they've had brutal winters.

Also contained in the Lenten thought is new life. That's where the bunnies and chickies come from.

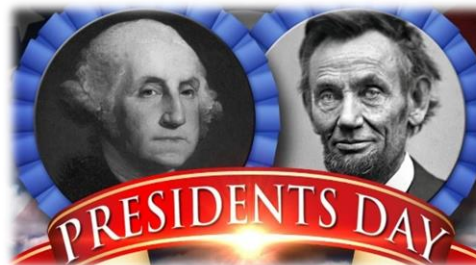

Christians latched on to the celebration because it affirms the ministry and Person of Jesus Christ, who is "the light of the world" (John 8.12). The one who follows Jesus does not walk in darkness. "In Him was life, and the life was the light of men. And the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it" (John 1.4,5).

That's the way Jesus went into the wilderness...as light. He did battle with the devil for 40 days, and He was victorious. So, we remember Lent as a time of humble confession, a time of enlightenment and battle with the forces of evil. Just as Jesus overcame temptation in a time of testing, so can we.

(I am sending you believers) to open their eyes so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the dominion of Satan to God, in order that they may receive forgiveness of sins and an inheritance among those who have been sanctified by faith in Me" (Acts 26.18).

President's Day

We know that George Washington's birthday is February 22, and Abraham Lincoln's birthday is February 12th, and now, Donald Trump's birthday is June 14th, and Joe Biden's is November 20th. Congress felt it necessary to combine Washington's and Lincoln's birthdays into a one-day celebration (the uniform Monday holiday law, 1971). We can celebrate all of our American presidents on this day. Put your American flag out and be grateful.

The Church Doorbell

*That's right. We have a front doorbell. Why? Because the Church Security Team feels our church doors need to be locked while NHCF people are in the building.
