The Truth

American courts used to have witnesses swear on the Bible to "tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth." Now, they've removed the Bible and God, and witnesses swear "to tell the truth." So, the truth has gone the way of much else in our culture, being watered down to useless verbiage.

After listening to the recent (lying) testimonies of our current crop of Washington politicians, and even our top military generals, I begin to understand why the truth is important.

My dad, who was "old school," thought that being truthful was very important, and the worst lickin' I ever got was for lying to him. Perhaps there should be more "lickin'" for lying.

No person can live a healthy and vital life as a liar. This is equally so for a nation. "You shall not bear false witness..." is one of the Ten Commandments, and God gave it to us knowing our wayward ways (Ex. 20.16).

Like Pilate, the Roman governor of Judiah, we have become cynical about the truth because we're surrounded by "untruths" (John 18.31-38). So, many have just given up on the truth.

Jesus said to His disciples: "I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life" (John 14.6a). He meant "the Truth," not a relative truth, like so many want to practice it today. Jesus is so true that "no one comes to the Father, but through (Him)." (14.6b). Certainly, the truth hurts, and in a sense, it should, but in Christ we can overcome the pain of our lies.

Put your hand on your Bible and say, "I will tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth."

Amen. ~ Pastor Tom
