‘Leave appearances aside
and listen to God.’
Pope Francis

Pope Francis began Lent by telling Christians to ensure their relationship with God "is not reduced to mere outward show." In an age when even one's most intimate thoughts and feelings can become fodder for social media, Lent is a time to cast aside appearances and to find God at work in the depths of the heart, Pope Francis said.

Without realizing it, Christians have become immersed "in a world in which everything, including our emotions and deepest feelings, has to become 'social,'" the pope said while celebrating Mass at the Basilica of Santa Sabina in Rome to mark the beginning of Lent Feb. 14. Today, "even the most tragic and painful experiences risk not having a quiet place where they can be kept," he said. "Everything has to be exposed, shown off, fed to the gossip mill of the moment."

Dressed in purple vestments to mark the Lenten season, Pope Francis said Lent is a chance for Christians to ensure their relationship with God "is not reduced to mere outward show." Lent "immerses us in a bath of purification," he said. "It means looking within ourselves and acknowledging our real identity, removing the masks we so often wear, slowing the frantic pace of our lives and embracing the truth of who we are."

The Lenten practices of "almsgiving, prayer and fasting are not mere external practices; they are paths that lead to the heart, to the core of the Christian life," he added, encouraging Christians to "love the brothers and sisters all around us, to be considerate to others, to feel compassion, to show mercy, to share all that we are and all that we have with those in need." Pope Francis suggested that during Lent Christians make space to incorporate silent adoration into their lives, as practiced by Moses, Elijah, Mary and Jesus. www.usccb.org

Parish Lenten Mission,
‘Rejoice in Hope.’
February 25 & 26, 7 to 8.30 pm

Inspired by St. Paul’s Letter to Romans 12:12, our mission is to guide you in discovering the profound answers to questions like: What is hope? Where does it come from? How can I embrace hope in my daily life ?

As we journey through the discipline of Lent, let us make it a point to reflect on the Words of our Lord and how we apply them in our daily living.

Together, with our guest speaker Fr. Anthony Atansi we will explore practical ways to infuse hope into our everyday lives and uplift our spirits, even when faced with adversity. Also, invite your friends and family to come and participate with you this Sunday and Monday.

Congratulations!

To the members of our social committee and all those who helped to make our annual Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper a great evening of food, friendship and community. Congratulations to all of you!
