Job

Numbered verses contain questions.

Eliaphaz said more than Bildad and Zophar combined. What was his main point (4:7-8)?

Was Job upright (1:1, 8, 2:3, 4:7, 8:6)?

To whom did Job speak in chapter ten?

Are the wicked always quickly judged (12:6)?

Why are there more questions in Job than in any other Book?

Did Job believe in resurrection (10:20-22, 19:25-27)?

Who did Zophar speak about in chapter 20?

Bildad's last speech (25:1-6) is very short, and Zophar did not speak a third time. Why did they run out of things to say? (32:5, 9-15)

Why did Job speak so much (7:11-21, 12:1-13, 28:1-28)?

What did Job ask in 28:12 and 28:20? How did he answer his own questions?

Why was Elihu so confident (32:6-9, 36:3-4, 37:16)?

How are chs. 37 and 38 alike?

Chapter 38 is nearly all questions. Why are there so many?

Why was Leviathan so proud (41:1, 33-34)?

Why didn't God correct Elihu with the others in 42:7-9?
