

Women with Disabilities Australia

Your right to learn

This book is about your right to learn.

We wrote this book for women and girls with disability. Read more about disability in our book New Words.

Women
With Disabilities
Australia
(WWDA)

We are Women with Disabilities Australia .

Your right to learn

All women and girls with disability have a right to learn things. Like go to

- go to kinder
- go to primary school
- go to high school

- go to university
- go to college

- go to TAFE
- get work training.

Help to learn

Women and girls with disability have a right to the help they need to learn. Like

- more help with things that are hard to do

- information that is easy to understand

- a screen reader for your computer.

United Nations Conventions and learning

Read more about what is a United Nations Convention in our book New Words.

There are UN Conventions to make sure we have the right to learn. They are

- The United Nations Convention on the Rights of People with Disabilities and

- The United Nations Convention on the Elimination of all Forms of Discrimination against Women

- The Convention on the Rights of the Child

- The International Covenant on Economic Social and Cultural Rights.

They say the Australian Government must do things to help women and girls with disabilities to learn. It is the law. Like

- your family must let you go to school

- schools must let girls with disability go to their school.

The government must do things to help girls with disability go to school. Like

- have free school buses

and

- the buses have wheelchair ramps

- give money to families of girls with disability.

It helps them pay for school costs.
