When you enter the Chapter of the Month area, you will see four tabs.

Chapter of the Month: Only one chapter is available each month. In this tab you will find information about the current chapter. Clicking on the cover image or the yellow button will open the chapter in a new browser window.

Supplemental Reading: In this tab you will find the Supplemental Reading Guide for the current chapter. These guides are prepared using our Electronic Search Tool, which enables specific searches on everything Joel wrote, and everything he discussed in classes. These guides are offered as suggested reading to expand your study of topics in the current chapter.

Archives: This tab contains the Supplemental Reading archives, not chapter archives. The guides are archived so that you may use them at any time with your own printed copy of the current book being studied, or use in conjunction with a subscription to the Virtual Library, where all books can be accessed at any time.

User Guide: If you get stuck, you can find the user guide in this tab!
