CHAPTER 9

“The Mystic and Healing”

Chapter Highlights

...The limitations of our experience are imposed upon us, not by anything we do or do not do or by anything we think or do not think, but by universal belief.

... We have the world we have because of these universal beliefs, which have created a materialistic state of consciousness.

...On the material level of life, there are two powers; and one is used to overcome another.

Pp 145

...On the spiritual level, there is but one power.

...There is no battle on the spiritual level because spiritual vision recognizes that whatever the power may appear to be, it is only temporal power. Whatever the problem, no matter how big it is, it has no might.

...As a human being, you have been born into the experience of unconsciously accepting both good and evil; so it becomes necessary, if you are to come out and be separate, for you consciously to accept and demonstrate your good. You cannot wait for God to do something because God is already doing it. God already is.

...In the first half hour of waking in the morning, establish yourself in the kingdom of God.

Pp 146

...True protective work is the realization that God alone is power and that what appears to us—whether it is a belief of infection or contagion, a belief in hereditary disease or hereditary traits, a belief in astrology, or a belief of any other nature—exists only as universal belief. Impersonalize these beliefs.

...Miracles take place when you no longer hold persons in bondage to whatever belief is binding them....Every lie you believe about another is really a form of malpractice.

...Realize that all you hear on the radio, see on television, or read in the newspaper is the “arm of flesh.”

Pp 147

...Rather than waiting for someone to tell you of some personal error, you could save him the experience by spending the first half hour of the morning in the realization that all human discord belongs to the activity of the carnal or mortal mind, which is not a mind.

... Evil of any and every nature operates invisibly as a belief in two powers; and because this is a universal belief, it acts universally in human consciousness.

...It is necessary to begin every day with a form of spiritual realization that has been called protective work.

Pp 148

...I consciously reject the belief that there is any power but that of God, Spirit. I consciously reject the belief that there is a material or mental law with power because God is Spirit, and God is the only law and lawgiver. Therefore, all law must be spiritual.

...You have to choose when you awaken in the morning whether you are going to allow yourself to serve the universal belief in two powers or whether you are going to be God-governed.

...There are no powers to operate in, on, or through me or anyone else except the power of God's grace.

The recognition of this truth turns hell into heaven, disease into health, sin into purity, and lack into abundance.

Pp 149

...Consciousness cannot be spiritualized to the extent of being a healing consciousness until you have sufficiently known and practiced protective work so that you begin your day steadfast in the realization of one infinite Power. Then for the rest of the day, regardless of the appearances that touch you, you are in a position to reject them as having no power because you have established yourself in that consciousness.

...You can prevent yourself from being overcome by these appearances, individual or worldwide, if you have established yourself in the Presence in the morning and have completely freed yourself of the belief in two powers, two laws.

...Every form of evil comes in the guise of law.

Pp 150

...These so-called laws are not law except as you accept them as law. The only law there can be is the law of God, and there is no other law because God is infinite.

...Wherever you find the pairs of opposites, the good and the evil, you are dealing either with matter or mind. The very moment you rise above these, you find a level of consciousness in which there is not good and evil: there is only pure spiritual, infinite, eternal, harmonious being.

.... if you live and move and have your being in God-consciousness and establish yourself in the realization of one Power, none of the evils of the world will come near your dwelling place.

Pp 151

...Your protective work is complete when you take the next step and realize that the power of good, the power of Spirit, operates from within your own being. It does not act upon you. It works out from you and acts upon this world.

...Just as the woman who touched the Master's robe was healed because he was a transparency through which the presence and power of God was flowing, so does your consciousness become the transparency or the instrument through which the law of God flows out into this world.

...The presence and power of God within you draws all you need in your day, operating invisibly through you out into this world.

...Every person you can bless or who can bless you is drawn into your experience. Every circumstance or thing will flow into your experience without your thinking about it.

Pp 152

...The only thought you need is the constant remembrance of your relationship to God, of the establishment of the kingdom of God within you, of the truth that all God is you are and all God has is yours.

Pp 152-153

...As you begin your day free from the belief in two powers, established in the realization that power does not act upon you but flows out from you and that it is the power of God, good, Spirit, and life, you are so established in oneness that the rest of the day, as negative appearances touch you—whether in your own experience or that of family, friends, patients, or students—you are prepared for them.

...Very few people recognize the power in silence and secrecy. As you do this work in the morning, do not speak about it to anyone. Do not even be persuaded to speak to your family about it. Keep it locked up within yourself.

Pp 153

...You are to keep these principles locked up within yourself and never discuss them except when teaching them.

...Work with this principle of protective work every single morning of your life, but keep it locked up within yourself and show forth by fruitage what is taking place within you.

...When somebody says, “How do you do it?” or “What are you doing?” do not rush to tell him. Remember you have found the “pearl of great price.” Let those who want it show by their sincerity, study, and devotion that they want it.

Pp 154

...Help them through your secret prayers and secret knowing; but do not begin sharing it until you know the one with whom you are sharing is as devoted to it as you are, as deeply desirous of God-awareness as you are, not merely of demonstration.

...You need only abide in the realization of God’s presence, realize God as here and now. Then you will have the mystical awareness that you can never be any place where God is not.

Search: “universal belief”

From *The Heart of Mysticism, Volume 4

... People, things, or conditions are never the source of our discords. Let us be very clear on that all-important point. There is a universal force, a universal belief, a universal hypnotism which is the source of every discord that comes into our experience. Every limitation, every sin, every temptation, and every disease which come to us are but the effect of a universal force or power which, remember, in and of itself, is not power: It is only power because of the human mind's acceptance of it.

Chapter 6 – “The Secret of the Healing Principle”

From The 1963 Instructions for Teaching the Infinite Way

...All that you have seen with your eyes is a finite concept of God's creation built on the universal belief in two powers. Therefore, you have seen concepts that are sometimes good, sometimes bad, sometimes young, sometimes old, sometimes sick, sometimes well, sometimes alive, and sometimes dead. But, remember, these are not creations of God.

From *Invisible Supply

...In the morning upon awaking, recognize God as the activity of the day, as the substance and the law of all that will take place during the day. Recognize God as the one Power and the one Presence that you will meet during the day. This acknowledgement of God is in fulfillment of what Scripture tells us: “Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee...”

Chapter 7 – “Practicing Spiritual Truth”

Search: “protective work”

From *The Only Freedom

...Protective work is probably the most important part of all the work in The Infinite Way. The reason is that if you have sufficiently protected yourself, you will have that much less need of overcoming anything because you will avoid those things that ordinarily we have to overcome. Protective work is not a protection from anything or from anybody. It is not protective work in that sense. It is protective work in the sense of protecting ourselves from the operation of universal belief.

Chapter 1 – “A Message for the New Year”

From The 1958 Manchester Closed Class

...First of all, from the moment of your waking in the morning you are doing protective work. Now don't think of protective work in the sense of protecting yourself from evil, or anybody else. Remember that protective work is the realization that there is no power to protect oneself from. That is protective work. Protective work is living in the realization that since there is only one Power there are no other powers to do anything, or be anything and any suggestion of such is this mesmeric influence or mortal mind or “arm of flesh” or nothingness.

Search: “miracles take place”

From The 1960 Second London Closed Class

...Every time that you rise in the ability to resist the temptation, to change a human being, and be able to look through to the spiritual identity, you are doing healing work. And you will be surprised how many miracles take place the very moment that you give up all attempts to make bad people good, or sick people well, and begin to dwell in the realization, “God reveal to me thy spiritual Selfhood. God reveal to me thy spiritual Son. God show forth the Son of God in every individual for I know it’s there.”

From The 1957 Inner Working Group Series

...I hear many, many already shouting at me, as they do, from the absolute: “Oh but error isn’t real so there’s nothing to protect yourself from.” I think I know that better than you do, but that doesn’t permit me to stop my protective work. Why? There’s no evil, but there’s the belief in the power of good and evil, and by inertia I let it operate in me unless I consciously reject it. And because this world keeps on manufacturing good and evil every day, I have to consciously reject it every day. And so I can't afford to let a day go by without the conscious realization that "I in the midst of me is mighty" and that there is nothing outside of me that can enter that "defileth or maketh a lie." Do you see that?

Search: "drawn to you"

From Consciousness in Transition

... From there on, as we work together, as we remain in this consciousness, you will find others being drawn to you, and your being drawn to others. You will find yourself being brought to places and places being drawn to you. You will say, "My, that's wonderful! That is just the thing I would have loved to have if I could have thought about it!" But it is always something greater than you could have thought up for yourself. That is where we are going with this unfoldment

From The 1956 Chicago Private Class

...Now those who are drawn to you have a light within themselves, faintly visible at the present time, but that light is drawing them to a greater degree of the light, which is already awakened in you. And the reason they're coming to you is that your greater lights pour into them still greater light. And that's the way it works.

From The 1964 London Studio Class

...But only remember this—and never forget it—that no man on the face of the globe can perform a miracle, except the miracle of silence, and for most of us, this is itself a miracle if we attain it. Be still for the space of a second and then you see the I which we do not use, which we do not manipulate, but which we behold in stillness, in quietness, in silence. This I appears outwardly as harmony in our experience.

From The 1955 Cape Town Series

..... There must always be Christ made manifest as Jesus, or Christ made manifest as John, or Christ made manifest as Mary, or Bill. There must always be a you or a me to be the light unto those not yet awakened to their true identity. But we, who have taken or have received this robe of the Master, this healing consciousness, we must be obedient in maintaining it in silence, in secrecy, and in sacredness. That is why in our message of The Infinite Way, none of us have any titles, and none of us have any robes, and the reason is that we must be saints inside, but just men and women, outside.

here and now this minute. All that God did in the Holy Land two thousand years ago through Jesus Christ, God is doing at this very moment, in this room, through us. Just as “God is no respecter of persons,” God is no respecter of time. God did not pick two thousand years ago as the time to do healing work and leave all the people before that and all the people who have lived since then out in the cold. There is no such God.
