New canned project from Jordi Llorens and Jordi Solé (winemakers) with Cristina Vaqué. Organically grown grapes in La Conca de Barberà (Tarragona - Blancafort) at 400m elevation. A blend of Trepát (very old goblet vines) and Garnatxa (young, 14 years). Hand harvested. Fermentation with indigenous yeast and maceration during 10 days with the skins. Pressed and aged in clay amphora on the lees for 6 months. Unfined, unfiltered, 0/0.

About the producer

We have created this path because we are passionate about the world of wine. We start from wines made with respect and health. The elaboration could not be any other way than obtaining natural wine. Our experience has led us to share a packaging, until now, unusual.

We think that the canned wine can be fun and practical ...and, undoubtedly, it preserves the fruit of the wine and the hands that take care of it .
