ABOUT

Jimmy Barnett provides tax preparation and planning for a variety of business clients primarily in the investment fund, fast food, and software space. As he works with various businesses, he gains in-depth knowledge of their industries to provide them the insight to move their business to the next level.

Prior to joining HHM, Jimmy gained experience as a fuel accounting intern with the Tennessee Valley Authority, and as the bookkeeper for a local construction company.

His penchant for thoroughness, accuracy, and quality work are appreciated by both his clients and colleagues.

On the weekend, Jimmy enjoys spending time with his wife and daughter, running, cycling, and playing basketball.
