ABOUT

Tyler Harvell joined HHM Memphis in 2017 after seven and a half years with Brundige Payne & Co. He performs and supervises financial statement audits for not-for-profits, for-profits, yellowbook, construction contractors, and HUD. He also prepares tax returns and supervises the preparation of tax returns. Having a degree in business information systems has been an asset for Tyler when adapting to software and other computer programs. He can get acquainted to changes quickly, and then turn to help his colleagues do the same.

He is passionate about the quality and service that is given to his clients, and they appreciate his thoroughness and timeliness in all aspects of his work. Tyler's desire to learn and advance in his career is apparent daily through his hard work and positive attitude.

Tyler hales from Mississippi and has lived in Memphis now for 11+ years. Outside of work, Tyler enjoys grilling, attending church service, and spending time with his wife, Sarah, and their daughters Caroline and Claire.
