ABOUT

Blake Bryson joined HHM’s Management Advisory Services department in 2021. His prior experience in public accounting, completing hedge fund and private equity audits, as well as private accounting experience in manufacturing and merger and acquisition consulting, makes him a valued asset to HHM.

Blake enjoys building and running complex financial models to help clients better track and improve their business’s spending and profitability. He has a keen ability for follow through and persistence in pushing through roadblocks.

Blake moved to Chattanooga from the Carolinas several years ago and proudly calls Chattanooga home. Outside of HHM, he enjoys camping, traveling, and visiting national parks.
