ABOUT

Kim Lawrence brings over 30 years of experience to the firm's tax practice. Kim advises clients in the areas of tax compliance, business and individual tax planning, and organizational restructuring. Her big picture approach on technical and detailed matters is just one way she adds immense value to the clients she serves.

Prior to joining HHM, Kim was a shareholder with a regional firm where her areas of emphasis included multi-family and commercial real estate, partnership structuring, like kind exchanges, and high net worth individuals.

Kim has been involved in supporting non-profit organizations in the community, including Scenic City Optimist Club, United Way and the Ronald McDonald House. Girls Inc. of Chattanooga has been the closest to her heart over the years, having served on the board of directors and finance committee for more than 10 years. In her free time, she enjoys traveling and cooking.
