

Lori Katz is a studio artist in the Washington DC area.

Lori's pieces are included in collections throughout the world, including the permanent collection of the Racine Art Museum, the US Embassy in Bandar Seri Begawan, the IBM Corporation, Amazon Web Services, New York Presbyterian Hospital and in numerous private homes.

Lori's work has been included in definitive shows and art fairs in the US, Europe and Asia.

Lori Katz is known for her exploration of surface and texture and for the striking strength and simplicity of her work.