BA (H) GRAPHIC DESIGN

Hello! I'm Robbie, a London-based graduate working primarily within branding, motion, and typography. I am idea-driven, and believe that this should always be the priority within work — outcomes bring core ideas to life. Intuitive and never afraid to learn, I adopt new skills and technologies wherever possible to ensure that all ideas receive outcomes that truly bring them to life. Through this process, I've been fortunate enough to be shortlisted as a winner for this years D&AD New Blood Awards. Fundamentally, I aim to produce design that leaves you smiling.
