

BA (H) FASHION

KNITWEAR DESIGN &

KNITTED TEXTILES

This renowned course gives students full control over the design and creation of fabrics, garments and products for fashion or interiors. With the option of a year-long work placement and live briefs and competitions, our industry-ready graduates go on to work for brands such as Abercrombie & Fitch, Calvin Klein, DKNY, Hugo Boss and Nike.

NTU COURSE PAGE

INSTAGRAM

Welcome to the Fashion Knitwear and Knitted Textile class of 2022. Here you can find a showcase of the emerging talent underpinning the creative future of the fashion knitwear industry. Due to the pandemic this year's cohort have faced extreme challenges but the showcase of work evidences their resilience, versatility, and positive approach to achieve success. The collections are individual, unique, and driven by creative ambition to celebrate the crafting of materials and processes through knitwear and knitted textiles. The graduating cohort are flexible and responsible, with the ability to respond to the changing demands of the global industry.

Helen Hill
Course Leader, BA (Hons) Fashion, Knitwear Design and Knitted Textiles