

Understanding Stewarding at Spectator Events

WESTMINSTER
GROUP PLC

From football matches to festivals, concerts to car races, there are thousands of spectator events every year that require stewards. Stewards are responsible for ensuring the safety of spectators and ensuring that an event runs smoothly

Overview

Security officers, crowd marshals, police, managers who have responsibility for the safety of people attending events. Football, Concert, etc. where large crowds gather to enjoy a one of the many events which take place every year. The course is useful for anyone looking to work as a steward at spectator events. It may be particularly useful for learners looking to gain a recognised level 2 qualification in spectator safety.

Content

- Prepare for spectator events
- Control the entry, exit and movement of people at spectator events
- Monitoring spectators and dealing with crowd problems
- Dealing with accidents and emergencies

Apply Now

E-mail: enquiries@wg-plc.com

Or visit our website:

www.wg-plc.com/training

Course Details

Type: CBT

Duration: 3.5 hours

Price: £95

Please note

Your online access details for the course will be provided to you once payment has been received