We're right by you

Employees are key to any business, but keeping abreast of the changes in employment law and managing the employer/employee relationship can take up a huge amount of a business owner's time.

Berry & Lamberts Solicitors understand this and have created the EmployRight scheme to help employers through the legal minefield of modern employment law.

EmployRight is a fixed cost scheme where you are provided with:

- The statutory statement of terms of employment for all your employees (or a review and update of your current standard contracts)
- A disciplinary procedure
- A grievance procedure
- An advice line enabling you to talk with a qualified lawyer about any employment-related problem that you may have for up to 12 hours in any 12 month period.

The cost of the scheme depends on the size of your business:

Size	Cost per annum
10 or fewer employees	£1,750
Between 11 and 29 employees	£2,000
Between 30 and 49 employees	£2,250
Between 50 and 100 employees	£3,000
101+ employees	£4,000

EmployRight is designed to ensure that you feel secure in the knowledge that you have the necessary documents in place and advice at hand at a cost which is fixed.

Our specialist team will provide you with bespoke advice in relation to any employment issue that you may have. When working with us you can be certain that you will be speaking to a qualified legal professional with experience in employment law.

*12 hours of advice is covered by the one-off fee until further charges apply.

All prices are exclusive of VAT. Prices quoted are correct at the time of print and may be subject to change.
