You Who are Weary, Come and Find Rest (and wine, cheese, and chocolate)

Look. We get it. Things haven't been normal (whatever that means) since the time before Covid. Being a rostered leader in the church (or the spouse of a rostered leader) has not been easy. In fact, sometimes it has just been one $$$@(#& after the other. And maybe you want a chance to get away for a week that has a little bit of structure, but not a lot. Well, this is the event for you. Here's the schedule:

- Breakfast
- Bible Study
- Lunch
- Happy Hour (that's the wine, cheese, and chocolate part)
- Dinner

All the spaces in between are yours to do whatever you want. We offer guest passes to the YWCA, our amazing Seminary Ridge Museum, meals catered by The Ragged Edge café, Bible Study with Pastor Joe Vought, and everything else Gettysburg has to offer from Civil War stuff to escape rooms and axe-throwing. Yes, you read that right—axe-throwing. In short, this is a low stress, minimal obligation, time to get away and breathe. You'll be in good company.

Bible Study Leader

Joe Vought is a recently retired ELCA pastor who brings years of experience and wisdom to the table without being obnoxious about it. He's a former internship supervisor, chaplain at the National Cathedral in DC, and an alpaca whisperer. Ok, we made that last one up, but he probably could if he wanted.
