elevate. Standards.

We maintain standards. We strive for perfection. We are passionate about meeting, and then exceeding, all of our guests' expectations. That level of pressure is conveyed in a very bullish way and that is what cooking is all about.

Deeply ingrained in the elevate brand is a strong reliance on local vendors and the community. Our menus feature only the freshest Sierra Meat + Seafood and their Durham Ranch Grass Fed Beef, Wagyu Beef, USDA choice Ribeye and only the highest quality seafood. Porter Road Dry Aged Beef, which we consider to be among the top 3% in the nation, is present on all of our menus. All of our buns are baked in house fresh every morning of your event and Doughboy's donuts products are baked + picked up fresh that same morning. Local award winning favorites in the beer and wine scene, The Brewer's Cabinet and Nevada Sunset Winery, are used to create some of our most signature elevate sauces, batters and soups, as well as to be enjoyed when dining in our restaurants.

At no point in time, is processed, pre-prepared or frozen product part of your order. All produce is Chef hand-picked daily from local markets with intense discipline. An immense level of pride is taken in preparing all of our sauces, dressings, pasta dough, pizza dough, soups and tortillas in house. We always will ensure your catering order and event has the signature "elevate" touch along with the absolute highest quality, freshest ingredients at all times. We do not just cater. We create experiences. We tell stories.

The story we tell is yours. Our responsibility is to bring your vision to life, while leading you in the proper direction. This means the food will be delectable, the service on point, every detail is our responsibility. We worry about everything achieving perfection so you don't have to.
