5th Sunday of Lent April 3rd Readings

1st Reading: Isaiah 43:16—21

Isaiah recounted how the Lord crushed the enemies of Israel. Then the Lord God did something entirely new by providing water in the desert for his chosen people to drink.

2nd Reading: Philippians 3:8—14

Paul told the Philippians how much he has forfeited in order to arrive at resurrection from the dead. Paul's entire attention was on the finish line as he ran toward the prize: life in Christ Jesus.

Gospel: John 8:1—11

Pharisees brought to Jesus a woman caught in adultery. They hoped he would condemn her to death by stoning, but Jesus said simply, "Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her." No one dared. Jesus forgave the woman and told her to avoid sin.

"Behind and before every vocation to the priesthood or consecrated life, there is always a strong and intense prayer from someone; a grandmother, a grandfather, a mother, a father, a community ...

Vocations are born in prayer and only in prayer can they persevere and bear fruit." — Pope Francis

What is Soul Core?

Soul Core is an apostolate that intentionally engages the whole person in the sacred experience of the rosary. Integrating the prayers of the rosary with core strengthening, stretching, and functional movements to nourish body & soul and encourage deeper reflection on the virtues. A gentle path to grow in virtue and cultivate interior peace. Soul Core began from a simple "yes" to an inspiration of the Holy Spirit. Founded in monotheism, one true God, Soul Core is based in Christian meditation and encourages "filling" the mind & soul specifically with the life, virtues, and Word of Christ. A movement all its own, Soul Core is not affiliated with any other fitness disciplines. More specifically, it is not yoga, nor are yoga poses of Sanskrit referenced at any time. Our Lady's desire is always to lead us closer to her son Jesus. As a Marian apostolate, Soul Core imitates her in striving to draw others closer to Christ through deeper reflection on His life and virtues in the rosary. Anything that could potentially lead us away from Christ is counter to our mission.

Soul Core meets every other Thursday at OLV's FF Center

1:30 pm—Next one is April 7th—Hope to see you there!
