6th Sunday of Easter May 22nd Readings

1st Reading: Acts 15:1—2, 22—29

A controversy arose among the disciples whether or not gentile converts were to be circumcised according to Mosaic law. At a Jerusalem meeting the Holy Spirit, the apostles, and the elders decided gentiles should not be burdened by such laws.

2nd Reading: Revelation 21:10—14, 22—23

An angel carried the visionary to the top of a mountain to view the holy city Jerusalem coming down from God in heaven. There was no temple because the Lord God and the Lamb were the temple.

Gospel: John 14:23—29

Jesus said to his disciples, "Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him."

Will your parish be a beneficiary?

FOUNDATION
for the Diocese of Helena

Imagine a large perpetual source of annual revenue for your parish. How could that impact your Church, your community? The FOUNDATION FOR THE DIOCESE OF HELENA dreams of being able to help fund your local church by increasing Parish Endowments that provide this revenue year after year in perpetuity. This dream can be a reality if we work together to ask the faithful to consider estate gifts.

The largest transfer of wealth ever seen is beginning to happen. As baby boomers retire and plan their legacy gifts, our Church has an opportunity to fund parishes into the future and bring Christ to new generations. Is your parish included in the estate plans of your parishioners?

We must provide an opportunity for parishioners to give an estate gift and perpetuate their faith to be celebrated with their grandchildren's grandchildren. Estate gifts are how we make this happen.

If your parish needs help soliciting estate gifts, the Foundation for the Diocese of Helena is excited to partner with you. We want to help you fund the future of our faith.

Please reach out to Dan Thies, Executive Director at (406)389-7051 or dthies@diocesehelena.org.
