30th Sunday in Ordinary Time October 23rd Readings

1st Reading: Sirach 35:12—14, 16—18

Though not unduly partial toward the weak, God hears the cry of the oppressed. God is not deaf to the wail of the orphan or the complaints of the widow. The Lord is a God of justice.

2nd Reading: 2 Timothy 4:6—8, 16—18

Paul claimed to Timothy that he had fought the good fight, finished the race, and kept the faith.
He claimed that now a crown of victory awaits him
as he arrives safely in the heavenly reign.

Gospel: Luke 18:9—14

Jesus told the story about the Pharisee and the tax collector to help those who placed confidence in their own righteousness while holding others in contempt. Jesus encouraged people to pray with the tax collector,
"O God, be merciful to me a sinner."

Relationship Health Assessment

Our Diocese has partnered with an organization called Communio - a nonprofit ministry that equips parishes with outreach tools and ministry strategies to evangelize and discipleship people through their marriages and relationships.

They are helping the Diocese set some ministry outcomes and ministry activities to achieve those outcomes. But, before we launch this initiative, our first big step is to understand the unique relationship needs of our parishioners. This will help us create a pathway forward in the coming months and years.

We're calling on everyone to help us! This month, we will distribute an anonymous, mobile-based relationship health survey to everyone 18 and older. You will have an opportunity to complete a 90-second survey on your smartphone during the announcements at all weekend Masses. The greater participation, the better insights the Diocese will have to craft a strategy to address the needs of ALL our single, engaged, and married parishioners.

If you miss the survey during announcements, you can access it by scanning this unique QR code or texting HelenaDeanery to 406-412-1708. Thank You!

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Our Annual Catholic Appeal message this year is certainly one that we proclaim together with great joy, "Jesus is Alive!" How fitting for us that, in supporting the appeal, we celebrate His presence in our lives and continue His mission through the works of the Church. I ask each of you to prayerfully consider a sacrificial gift of stewardship to help ensure Jesus, alive and among us, is heard and seen in our communities and around the world! As you continue or begin your stewardship journey, please remember Christ's teaching and ministry. Reflect on the life of Jesus and listen to Him in prayer. Then, when you are generous, be assured that your gift will help bring the love and the life of our Lord to many others. May we grow closer to Christ through generosity and never be too busy or too timid to proclaim to all the world that Jesus is Alive!

In Christ, I am

Most Reverend Austin A. Vetter,
Bishop of Helena
