33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time November 20th Readings

1st Reading: 2 Samuel 5:1—3

Because David was so loved as a leader, the elders of all the tribes anointed him king of Israel at Hebron. King David shepherded the people from then on.

2nd Reading: Colossians 1:12—20

God's Son brought the people into the reign of forgiveness and love. He heads the body, the church, and has primacy in all things, making peace through the blood of his cross.

Gospel: Luke 23:35—43

The soldiers made fun of Jesus on the cross, offered him bitter wine, told him to save himself if he was the Christ, and told him to put an inscription over his head:
"This is the King of the Jews."

First Sunday of Advent November 27th Readings

Isaiah 2:1—5
Romans 13:11—14
Matthew 24:37—44

This is how Jesus exercises his power--by changing human hearts and minds, not by using brute force. He may have seemed the least kingly and the most powerless while on the cross, but that's when he did the most powerful thing possible: he changed the course of human history. And today, he wants to continue his work by changing our hearts a little bit at a time.

So come and honor Jesus your King today. Come and bow down to him and let him reign in your heart through love!

"Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom."

The Pope's intentions for November Children Who Suffer

We pray for children who are suffering, especially those who are homeless, orphans, and victims of war; may they be guaranteed access to education and the opportunity to experience family affection.

Thank you for your generous support last week for the collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development! As a parish, we raised $575 so far, to support those on the margins who live in poverty in the United States. If you missed the collection, it's not too late to give! visit www.usccb.org/nationalcollections and click "How to Give" under "Resources."
