Which of the two did his father's will?

— Matthew 21:31

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 1st Readings

1st Reading: Ezekiel 18:15—28

The LORD spoke through Ezekiel: "Hear now, house of Israel: ... If he turns from the wickedness he has committed, and does what is right and just, he shall preserve his life."

2nd Reading: Philippians 2:1—11

Paul quoted an ancient hymn: "Who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God something to be grasped. Rather, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Because of this, God exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every other name."

Gospel: Matthew 21:28—32

Jesus said that outcasts enter God's reign because of faith but not the righteous who lack repentance: "Tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God before you."

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 8th Readings

Isaiah 5:1—7

Philippians 4:6—9

Matthew 21:33—43

The Pope's Intentions for October

For the Synod

We pray for the Church, that she may adopt listening and dialogue as a lifestyle at every level, and allow herself to be guided by the Holy Spirit towards the peripheries of the world.

Sacred Heart Mission Suspended

Bishop Vetter visited the community of the Sacred Heart Mission at Wolf Creek on Saturday, September 16. The Bishop, citing a shortage of priestly availability, announced the suspension, (not closure), of the mission until further notice. The 3 pm Saturday weekend mass will continue to be celebrated until October 21, at which time weekend masses will suspend.

We continue to pray for all of the suspended missions in our Diocese and for the blessing of more priestly vocations in the days ahead.
