Handcrafted Garage Doors

The IDC Difference

IDC-Automatic Garage Doors, a family owned and operated business, runs on a firm tradition of bringing you charming, custom-made wood garage doors. We have positioned ourselves to have the best delivery, service, and installation for automatic and custom wood garage doors in the Twin Cities area.

We have one of the largest selections of custom garage doors of any company in the Twin Cities area. IDC-Automatic Garage Doors understands that no two homes are the same. We know our customers want completely unique designs to fit the look and style of their homes, which is why no two doors are the same. Our custom designs allow you to find the perfect garage door for your needs — one that also complements the existing architecture of your home's exterior. The result is increased curb appeal, as well as high function, that make your home or business look great and operate seamlessly.

IDC-Automatic Garage Doors prides itself on delivering the highest quality garage doors to our customers. Our Twin Cities location offers a beautifully remodeled showroom where you can check out our large selection of automatic garage doors.

Let us assist you the next time you need help with the design and construction of a beautiful new custom-made garage door!

Exceptional Engineering

Custom garage doors should enhance the character of your home. That is why our garage doors create an immediate impression of quality and craftsmanship, while fitting your personality and style. Because they are a personal statement as well as a functional entrance to your home, we take our responsibility as craftsmen and engineers seriously.

“Our custom designs allow you to find the perfect garage door.”

Semi-Custom Design

Our semi-custom option, Series 5, gives you freedom to make key decisions about the way your garage door looks and feels, while leaning on preexisting designs that give you a head start. Not all homeowners have a vision for a garage door, but many have preferences. This is why the Series 5 so often makes the perfect fit for those looking for semi-custom decorative garage doors.

series X endless possibilities

From rustic to refined, simple to ornate, we can design the perfect door for your home. There is no limit as to what we can and cannot do with a Series X door — the options are only limited by imagination. Your door can be handcrafted with a wide range of wood species and/or unique metals. Beyond the foundational material of the door, you can add your own decorative touches using different metal decorations, architectural details, and wood niches. With infinite options, you get to create a door as unique and interesting as you.

With custom garage doors from IDC-Automatic, the possibilities are endless, but the end result is always the same — our commitment to your total satisfaction.

Choosing Your New Garage Door

Step 1

Choose Door Style

Series 5, Series 7, Series X.

Step 2

Select Windows or No Windows

All IDC-Automatic windows are double-paned for exceptional energy efficiency.

Step 3

Select Color and Grain

A color to fit every style, while still remaining durable and easy to maintain.

Step 4

Define Edge Profiles

Subtle details, like the edge profile, harmonize the look of your door.

Step 5

Select Decorative Hardware & Accents

IDC-Automatic offers additional detailed touches to your door such as kick plates, handles, hinges, latches, and more.

Step 1 Choose Door Style

series X endless possibilities

Only Limited by Imagination

Choosing a Series X door will allow your creativity to run wild. There are no limitations as to which type of material your door can be made of — many species of wood, copper, stainless steel, etc. Our craftsmen design, engineer, and build each door by hand to truly bring your picture-perfect door to life. If you choose a wood door, you will be able to continue even further in designing your dream door by choosing the color, finish, and grain of the wood as well!

On any of our Series X doors you are able to choose whether or not you would like to add windows. To take that one step further, choose square or arched designs along with your favorite finish of glass.

The hardware options are endless when it comes to the Series X doors. Anything that you want, we can get — from handles, to kick plates, to decorative metal pieces, and so much more!

A Series X door allows for you to put your creative masterpiece in the hands of our craftsmen, so they can bring it to life!
